LEADERSHIP, LEARNING AND WELLBEING

Julia Hancock

BOUNDLESS COACHING MANIFESTO

At some time in their life, everyone draws on the qualities and skills of resilient leadership

What can you expect from me?

I am committed to nurturing who you are and what you do to provide support as you reflect and grow your awareness and learning.

I will listen and respond with love, empathy and understanding of your needs,.

I will integrate appropriate levels of challenge where required, to inspire curiosity and creativity

I will share valuable insights, tools and strategies to empower your meaningful growth as an individual and a leader.

What I expect from you

- You commit to our sessions and follow up actions
- You engage with trust, playful curiosity and openness to approaches
- You accept positive challenge and willingness to explore the opportunities that arise

The exciting benefits of working with me

I enable you to lead with your values and reflective awareness, using creative strategies

I empower a clear sense of purpose to inform effective action

We create joy and fulfillment in professional partnership to ensure personal and professional transformation and building your capacity for resilient leadership.

Your commitment

Prioritise your personal and profession development in your engagement

Be ready to embrace change and take action

Be open to challenge and creative exploration and push beyond your known or perceived boundaries
